

BRIAN ALBERT SMITH

Born: 9 August 1959 Trenton, Mercer County, NJ

Father: VALENTINE WILLIAM SMITH (12 July 1924 - 19 June 2006)
Mother: ALBERTA JEAN MATELENA (4 February 1929 – 6 December 1971)

BRIAN lived in Los Angeles, California and is a Doctor of Chiropractic, graduating from Los Angeles College of Chiropractic in 1987. He practiced in the Los Angeles area until 2012. After retiring he spent 5 years in Orlando, Florida before moving to Barcelona, Spain and took a faculty position at the Barcelona College of Chiropractic

He met RANDOLPH THOMAS REINBECK (born 24 October 1954, NJ) in 1979 and they moved to San Diego, CA in the summer of 1981 where they first lived at 2300 North Front Street and then on Florida Street until the spring of 1982. They then moved to Glendale, California, living first at 240-B South Adams Street and later at 328 West Palmer Avenue, Unit 4 after BRIAN'S brother BOB vacated the unit and moved to Santa Cruz. They had a Domestic Partnership from 16 April 1985 to 26 July 1988, West Hollywood, CA.

BRIAN received ministerial credentials in 1988 from the Universal Life Church in Modesto, California. Brian moved to 1331 North Martel Avenue, Unit 7 in Hollywood in August 1988.

He and JOHN TRACY BEITNER (born 7 April 1966, Trumball, CT) registered as a Family Association with the California Secretary of State on 19 February 1991 and had a Domestic Partnership in West Hollywood.<sup>1</sup> They had a commitment ceremony performed at Graystone Manor in Beverly Hills before approximately 70 friends and family on 21 April 1991. JOHN lived with him in Hollywood until August 1991 when they moved to 3708 ½ Corinth Avenue in west Los Angeles. The Family Association and domestic partnership were dissolved in December 1998.

BRIAN became a certified chiropractic internist in February 1996 and a naturopathic physician in August 1999. BRIAN has had several articles published in scholarly journals, most concern turn-of-the-century chiropractic doctors in the Los Angeles area.

BRIAN married BRIAN THOMAS KITCHENS (born 15 September 1966, Athens, GA, son of ROBERT THOMAS KITCHENS and BONNIE ANN FOX) in a Vermont Civil Union ceremony in Saint Albans City, Vermont on 10 October 2001. Beginning in April 2001 "the BRIANS" lived at 2014 Valentine Street in the historic Echo Park section just north of downtown Los Angeles. They separated in September 2005 and were divorced in July 2007.

BRIAN continued to live on Valentine Street until August 2008 and he conducted his private practice from his home from January 2007.

BRIAN then spent two years in the Coachella Valley area of Riverside County, California. From September 2008 until February 2009 he lived at Caballeros Estates at 280 South Caballeros in Palm Springs. Until August 2009 he lived at 632 South Camino Real also in Palm Springs. During September and October 2009 he was visiting friends and family in Florida and, upon returning to the West Coast, he stayed at 746 South Detroit Street in Los Angeles when a friend asked for his assistance in landscaping his 1930s duplex. He returned to the Coachella Valley in mid-March 2010 for a brief stay in Del Webb's Sun City Retirement Community in Palm Desert. At the start of June he left for Santa Cruz, California where he stayed with his older brother BOB for 2 months, helping him to set up his office computer. He spent time in Fresno, California beginning the second week of August 2010 to visit family and remained there until December 2010. He then returned to Trenton, NJ where he stayed with his brother CRAIG while visiting his aging relatives and doing genealogical research. In June 2011 he moved to Orlando, Florida, becoming a roommate to his first partner RANDOLPH REINBECK. He began teaching at Concorde College in July 2012 in the RN program and added, in December 2012, classes as an initial instructor in their new neurodiagnostician program followed by two years teaching in the nursing program at Keiser University in Orlando.

<sup>1</sup> City of West Hollywood, Domestic Partnership number 4551.